The U. S. Navy was enriched this week by the addition of the "Flying Bulldogs," a group of 12 Lower Merion High School graduates who reported on Tuesday at Franklin & Marshall College, Lancaster for their Civilian Pilot Training.

The idea started when two of the boys enlisted in June and decided that they would round up a group of friends to join with them. Lieutenant Roland F. Harper, 410 Kent Rd., Cynwyd, has helped them with organizing the group which has met at his home to make plans and choose a name.

Herbert Latch, son of Mr. and Mrs. George G. Latch, Hagysford Rd., Penn Valley, class of 1942; Robert John Graham, son of William Graham, 16 School Lane, Ardmore, class of 1939, attended Drexel Institute for two years; H. Clair Raynor, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Raynor, 43 Chatham Rd., Ardmore, class of 1940, attended Drexel Institute; William J. Helmig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Helmig, 178 Summit Lane, Cynwyd, a graduate of Archmere Prep School, attended Villanova College; Edward J. Higgins, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Sampey, Broadacres Rd. and Braeburn Lane, Penn Valley, class of 1942; Horace H. Fritz, son of Mrs. Beulah Fritz, 379 Penn Rd., Wynnewood, class of 1942; James McCready Huston, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. McC. Huston, 819 Montgomery Ave., Bryn Mawr, class of 1941 attended Haverford College.

Motor Corps Will Start Regular Drills

Complying with a new Red Cross Motor Corps requirement of eight hours of compulsory drilling per year, members of the Main Line Branch No. 1 Corps will start on September 14 to drill every Monday from 4:30 to 5:15 p.m. at the Ardmore Playground, Athens av. and Sussex rd., Ardmore.

Realizing the value of this drill both for the healthful exercise as well as for the training of women to be efficient paraders, members of many other Red Cross departments are expected to join the Motor Corps in participating in this drilling under the supervision of Miss Josephine Mustin.

Manoa Invades Narberth Saturday For Opening Game Of Title Series

It's Narberth against Manoa for the Main Line Baseball League championship of 1942!

This was determined during a turbulent weekend in which Narberth battered its way to two successive victories over the Collegians to win its preliminary playoff, 3 games to 1, while Manoa, after losing a heartbreaking one run game on Saturday, came back with a crushing display of power to win the final two games from Gladwyne and the playoff, 3 games to 2.

The survival of these two teams, arch-rivals since 1938, was a popular one as they have the largest followings in the circuit. Their meeting automatically assures the series of being a financial success.

This is only the second time Narberth and Manoa have met in the championship series, the only previous meeting resulting in a rather humiliating defeat for Manoa in three successive games in 1939. However, Manoa eliminated Narberth in the preliminary 1938 play-off.

This is Manoa's fourth appearance in the finals in the five years it has been in the circuit. In 1938 the Haverford Township tilters downed Berwyn in a series that went the full five games. They lost to Narberth in three straight the following year and were knocked out in the preliminary round by Gladwyne in 1940. However, last year they came back to win the title at Gladwyne's expense in a series that went only four games.

Narberth, gunning for its 18th pennant, will be competing in the playoffs for the 13th time. If anything makes Narberth the choice in the current series it will be tradition, because the boroughites were defeated in only two championship series and haven't been licked in one since Paoli turned the trick in 1931.

The teams will meet at Narberth in the first game Saturday, with Stan Zetuskus slated to pitch for the borough while Walt Cantwell is expected to toss 'em plateward for Manoa. Bill Smith, the former Haverford High star, will pitch for

Pastor Speaks at Meeting of Rotary

The Rev. Walter Johnston, Phoenixville, was the speaker on Tuesday at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club, held at the Overbrook Golf Club.

The meeting's theme was vocational service, and Ray L. Williams was in charge of the program.

Dr. F. Munro Purse, president, presided.

Mr. Johnston, a former member of the club, spoke on his vocation and likened the work of a pastor to that of any businessman or merchant.

"The pastor is in partnership with God," he said. "He is a junior partner, and he finds all types of customers, just as the merchant finds all kinds — the good, the bad and the indifferent. However, he has no competition, since any attempted competition is obviously fraudulent. Competition implies substitution of an article of equal value, and there is no such substitute for religion."

Sportsmen Plan Sunday Picnic

Defense Stamp Prizes For Fly, Plug and Surf Casting

Another picnic and outing is being planned by members of the Lower Merion Rod and Gun Club, for September 20 at the Nash Farm on Sprague rd., Narberth. At a recent meeting of the Board of Directors, Sunday was voted the advisable day, since a large percentage of the Club's membership is occupied on Saturdays in some phase or other of National Defense work.

Walter Johnston of Roxborough, president of the Club, has appointed the following picnic committee: Charles Spencer, Upper Darby; Ernest Jenkins, Narberth; Walter Miesner, Narberth; John Miller, Narberth; George Floyd, Narberth; John Zentgraf, Jr., Ardmore; Earl Moore, Narberth; Raymond Trudgen, Overbrook Hills; Howell and Ellen Dietrich, Upper Darby.

Prizes of Defense Stamps will be awarded in each competitive event, including fly, plug and surf casting, as well as rifle, pistol and trap shooting.

Attractive gifts will also be given in games for the ladies.

Mrs. Joseph P. White and Mrs. T. O. Eaton, both of Narberth, have volunteered to make up the menu and procure the food.

Competitive events will commence at 12 o'clock noon.

Plan "Pow-Wow" For Scout Leaders Of Two Counties

Scout Leaders from over 350 Scout Troops, sea Scout Ships and Cub Packs, will tramp the trails of Delaware and Montgomery Counties, to attend the 19th Annual Scouters Pow Wow, at Camp Delmont, Valley Forge Council's Scout Reservation at Green Lane, September 19 and 20.

The "Pow Wow," a training get-together of all leaders, will begin promptly at 3 p. m. Saturday, when Dr. Oscar Nelson, Camping Chairman of the Council, will greet the men at the opening ceremony.

Special emphasis is being laid on the training of every Scout who is 16 years of age, and active in his Troop. Due to wartime conditions, Senior Scouts are invited to participate in the following courses at the Pow-Wow: Troop Programs, Messenger and Emergency Training, Function of Green Bar Men and Overnight Camping.

St. Margarets Wins Montdel Title; Batting Punch Trips St. Denis

The Montdel League baseball campaign was drawn to a close on Labor Day morning at Narberth with the second and concluding game of a championship series which came as somewhat of an anti-climax to a season which had been packed with thrills. It ended with the St. Margarets nine, of Narberth, winning the title by mopping up its St. Denis rival, from Oakmont, in both games of the best-of-three series.

Combining a strong-arm batting punch with some high-class hurling by the curly-headed southpaw, Albie Becker, Ted Finn's borough forces swept the Sunday game at Ardmore by an 11-2 count, then came back the next day to crush the Oakmont squad 10-6.

Two juicy uprisings, each worth six runs, settled the issue in both games. And in both frays home runs played a tremendously important role as the Narberth nine clinched the championship its first year in the loop. On Sunday Jim Bartlett's husky round-tripper with the bases loaded was the pay-off wallop in the big fourth, while Bob Tabor came through with a four-py blast in the same session to climax a six-tally outburst that factually cooked the St. Denis goose on Monday morning.

Prior to that fatal fourth in the holiday fray stocky Henry Cantagalli had bombed a round-tripper over the left field fence in the second with Albie Becker on base to give Tabor a 2-1 lead.

Albie Becker was the pitching hero of both games although the victory Monday which clinched the title was credited to husky Bob Tabor. But Becker came in as a relief hurler after St. Denis had pounded Tabor for four singles and a double to score four markers in the fifth. Becker had his troubles until he got warmed up, a home run by Charlie Dykes with the bases bare cutting his lead to 8-6, but in the last two frames he was unhittable.

St. Denis lost the game as early as the fourth, due to that six-run slugging they underwent in that frame, but the Oakmont team came back with a rally of their own in the fifth to narrow the gap and drive Tabor to shelter. They tagged Becker for three hits in the sixth but were prevented from scoring.

Illegal Eviction Cases Are Stopped

Out of 500 Complaints Only Two Were Taken to Court

More than 500 cases of illegal evictions have been stopped by the Rent Control Division of the Office of Price Administration, Sylvan M. Cohen, Rent Enforcement Attorney for the Philadelphia-Camden Rent Control Area, reported today.

In only two cases was it necessary to go into court, Cohen said. The other cases were settled by informal conferences, sometimes conducted over the telephone.

In addition many hundreds of other proposed evictions were halted before they had reached the final stage, when landlords and tenants were advised of the new regulations on evictions by telephone or letter.

"This has proved to be a very important function of the Area Rent Office," Cohen said. "It is particularly vital at the present time when there is an acute housing shortage in this area and it is not always possible for a tenant to find another place to live in which is convenient to his work."

In many cases the Rent Office has stepped in where a landlord was attempting to evict a tenant because the tenant refused to pay more than the legal rent. Rents were frozen in this area at the March 1 date.

"Several landlords have placed such cases in the hands of constables to levy on the tenants' furniture on the grounds of unpaid rent. An investigation has shown that the rents demanded were illegal and the tenants had offered to pay the legal maximum rent," Cohen said.

Warns Holders of "B" and "C" Cards

Cautions Against Driving for Non-Occupational Usages

Automobile drivers who possess "B" or "C" Gasoline Ration Books have been warned by A. B. Detwiler, Chairman of the Montgomery County War Price and Rationing Board, to cease driving their cars for purposes other than those for which the supplemental ration was given, except for the maximum of 90 miles per month allowed for non-occupational purposes in the "A" book ration.

Mr. Detwiler said that some drivers apparently have not realized that this means that 150 miles per month of occupational driving is to be covered by the coupons issued in the "A" book.

"If supplemental ration book owners drive for more than 90 miles per month for non-occupational purposes," he said, "not only will they run short of gas for occupational purposes, but their supplemental books may be withdrawn. Only under a few specific circumstances may further rations be given prior to the expiration date of the current ration."

Mr. Detwiler pointed out also that some drivers have not affixed the appropriate stickers to the windshields of their cars to show their ration.

"Stickers must be properly affixed," he said. "It is illegal for service station attendants to sell gas to anyone unless the proper sticker is affixed. It is also illegal for them to sell gas in exchange for coupons which have already been detached from ration books. To do either is a violation of regulations and subjects both parties to penalties."

New Chaplain for Episcopal Academy

Son of Dr. William H. Jefferys of Rosemont

The Episcopal Academy announces the election to its chaplaincy of the Rev. William H. Jefferys, Jr., son of Doctor William H. Jefferys, Rosemont.

The previous chaplain, the Rev. Charles Martin, who was curate at the Church of the Redeemer at Bryn Mawr, has been elected rector of St. Paul's Church, Burlington, Vermont.

Mr. Jefferys will take over his duties at the beginning of the school year, September 18. Mr. Jefferys graduated from the Episcopal Academy in 1932, he was a member of the Varsity Soccer Team and a distinguished scholar. He graduated from Harvard University and majored in bio-chemistry; he then attended the Episcopal Theological Seminary at Cambridge, and later transferred to the Virginia Theological Seminary at Alexandria, from which he graduated Summa cum Laude in 1939.

He married Miss Ena Baur of Erie. Mr. and Mrs. Jefferys have two young children. After a year as assistant at Grace Church, New Bedford, Mr. Jefferys became rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Marlborough, Massachusetts. He is well known to many Main Liners and Philadelphians. His father was for many years head of the City Missions; his uncle, the Rev. Edward M. Jefferys, was rector of St. Peter's Church, Philadelphia.

Air Raid Calls Still Clog Telephone Lines Says Defense Head

"Don't make telephone calls during an air raid alarm and for some time after the all-clear," is the appeal issued this week by E. Russell Matz, acting chairman of the Montgomery County Defense Council.

The floods of calls which have followed test air raid alarms recently in many sections of the County have clogged telephone lines upon which the whole Civilian Defense system depends, Matz pointed out.

"In a real raid such floods of calls would create a dangerous situation. Loss of life and property might result," he declared.

"For your own protection and for the safety of the community, even though you may think it is only a test, don't make telephone calls during an air raid alarm and for some time after the all-clear has sounded," Matz urged. "If your telephone rings, however, answer it promptly," he added.

Scouts in Annual Board of Review

Campfire and Games Follow Meeting at Lutheran Church

The Boy Scouts of the Main Line District, their scoutmasters, troop committeemen, commissioners, and members of the executive staff gathered at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Ardmore September 8 for the annual Board of Review and Court of Honor. This was followed by the traditional campfire, at which there were Scout demonstrations and games.

It is at this event each year that Scouts, who have earned the right to move from one class to the next above it — when the Tenderfoot rises in rank. It is also on this occasion that those who have been working for merit badges, the symbol of Scout ability, receive their rewards, after having appeared before merit badge counselors, who have certified that the requirements of the national organization have been fulfilled.

Arrangements for the evening were made under the direction of L. B. Curtis, with George Roberts, who led the song fest. The Scouts of the Ardmore 7 Troop were responsible for the blazing campfire. Commissioners Harry Lutemeyer and W. E. Rosengarten arranged for the activities. District Commissioner L. Fielding Howe welcomed the group.

Plan Conference Of Young People

Narberth Presbyterian Church Lists Busy Fall Program

Over 40 young people of the Narberth Presbyterian Church will hold their annual September conference this weekend at the Old Mill, Brandmore, Pa. The Rev. Bryant M. Kirkland, pastor, is the director. The staff includes Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kasner, Mr. and Mrs. John Havlick, Mr. and Mrs. W. Robertson, and Mrs. Evelyn Shippe.

The Bible School teachers of the Narberth Presbyterian Church will be honored at this Sunday morning's service, when Mr. Kirkland will conduct a consecration service for the Association, headed by Mr. Warren Bossert.

"Every Member Present" Sunday will be conducted in the Sunday School September 20, as a prelude to the Rally Day Promotion exercises on September 27.

Mrs. J. S. Digby announces the opening of the Junior Church this Sunday. While the parents are in church, boys and girls 6 to 12 years old are cared for and given instruction in Bible and church principles and worship. The Nursery will open under the direction of Mrs. Robert Fetterman, assisted by members of the N. A. Wood class. The Nursery cares for children under six years of age.

The printed folder and outlines for the Wednesday evening hour will be distributed to all present on Wednesday at 8 p. m. The new course of Bible study is entitled "Bible Summaries." The plan is to discuss and summarize a book of the Bible each week, and thus provide a survey of the Bible.

Ralph Heister has been announced as the chairman of the Visitation Committee, which will visit the homes of the congregation to announce the World Wide Communion on October 4. The teams of visitors will go out on Sunday afternoon, September 27.

Frederick Robb has announced that the Annual Retreat Dinner

Coach Mattis in Nasty Mood; There's Plenty Of Reasons

Here's a tip for you Lower Merion High School football fans: Be careful how you approach Head Coach Dick Mattis at the moment. Frankly, he's in a nasty mood.

Not that he'll bite your head off if you should speak to him politely in passing. But it just isn't the time to step up and ask him for the loan of a buck or a pass to the opening game, if you get what we mean.

He's going through one of those low periods through which all coaches must pass. He's disappointed and far from pleased with the way things have been going. Here's why:

1. Only 35 turned out for practice on the opening day of school on Wednesday. That wasn't as many as had been working out morning and afternoon for the past two weeks at Chichester Field, and it was just about half the number that usually turns out on opening day. Of course, the weather wasn't very nice. It rained every now and then and the ground was soggy, but it was the first time in memory that Lower Merion boys shied from the gridiron on account of a little rain.
2. Mattis is still looking frantically for a good end. Greer Heindel, of basketball fame, hasn't shown up so it's assumed he's going to stick to the court game this year. Don Evans, another rangy basketballer, reported, but he'll be ineligible for the West Philly and Chester games and might miss a third. In the meantime Mattis has been working with Reds DiGiovanni, a rugged youngster from West Manayunk who never played football until this year, and Vernon Young, a backfield holdover, as likely running mates for veteran Dick Whiting. Charles Callahan, who has been showing lots of promise at guard, may also be tried out as a wingman if the others don't come through.
3. Joe DeFelice, veteran tailback, has been hobbling around on a bad leg for the past week. It's the same leg that kept Joe out of the last two games in the 1941 campaign but he insists it isn't the aggravation of the old injury. Just the same it has caused complications in Mattis'.

Advises Squires Against Two-Charge Traffic Cases

Magistrates were advised against issuing summonses for summary offenses in traffic cases where a misdemeanor, also, has been charged, at a meeting of the Montgomery County Justice of the Peace Association Tuesday night.

The advice came from their solicitor, Raymond Pearlstone, who spoke at the Swamp Hotel in New Hanover.

This means that if a motorist is arrested on a misdemeanor charge like drunken driving or hit-and-run he should not be booked for a summary offense like passing a red light or reckless driving.

Pearlstone said the practice, common in some municipalities of the County, is harmful to police, magistrates and citizens.

On the part of the police, he said, it often leads to hit-and-miss prosecution practices and in departments where it is found it is often coupled with a "get your man, right or wrong" policy.

It has a tendency to reflect on the minor judiciary, he explained, because where the major offense like drunken driving is dropped and a fine imposed for reckless driving it appears as though someone might be fixing cases.

Worst of all, he said, it is an injustice to citizens because if they can be arrested on innumerable charges, both summary and misdemeanor, they are being exposed to vicious practice from which they have little chance of escaping conviction.

Pearlstone said he doubted if the line of judicial reasoning, pursued in recent opinions of the Court, would uphold such a practice.

Magistrates at the meeting voted to continue their monthly meetings until such a time as the restrictions on gasoline and tires made it impossible for them to attend.

Magistrate Walter B. Lowmes, Jr., Ardmore, president of the Association, presided. More than 50 magistrates and constables attended.

Vocation School Has Waiting List

Enrollment Disperses
Skepticism About
Need of School, Says
Superintendent

Frowned on by some as an unnecessary educational expansion Lower Merion's new vocational school now has an enrollment "waiting list" which includes applicants from other municipalities and even other states.

Superintendent of Schools Frank A. Dubois had this to report when he spoke Wednesday night at the first Fall meeting of the Ardmore Chamber of Commerce at Chateau Colotte, Ardmore.

Where they expected an enrollment of 100, said Superintendent Dubois, 160 were starting the course. Several students enrolled from Haverford Township and others applied from out-of-town, he said.

In proposing construction of the school, the speaker said, they had to combat an idea that because of the Main Line's residential character there was no need for vocational education.

Construction of the school, he pointed out, had taken Lower Merion to the forefront with one of the finest vocational education systems in the land. The contribution it was now in a position to make to the National war effort was immeasurable, he declared.

Superintendent Dubois said that in a recent letter from the Government the School District was asked to shorten the welders course to 200 hours thus bringing a much needed worker to industry as soon as possible.

Cynwyd Players in Tennis Tournament

Residents of Bala-Cynwyd who play tennis on the Belmont av. and Llandrillo rd. courts have started a tournament and have challenged players of the Merion Courts to play the tournament winners on September 20.

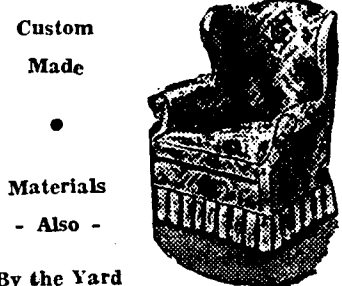

Cliff Walters is manager of the Belmont av. court teams, and the players include R. Ketterer, P. Holmes, T. Gerhart, L. Tashjian, L. Rosenberger, R. Cavalliere, C. Walters, C. Maxwell, F. Maxwell, C. Worrall, G. Tanner, H. Tegler and T. Lavine.

This Saturday and Sunday the championship singles will be played at the Belmont av. courts.

Party Lines In War Time

By sharing a party line, you make it possible for others to have telephone service.

Use your share of the line considerably. Don't make unnecessary calls. Keep all your calls short.

Such consideration will help all who share the line to have good telephone service. It will help, too, to keep the lines clear for important war calls.

JUNK needed for War

"What's it good for?"
"Guns, tanks, and maybe part of a plane"

In the attics and cellars of homes, in garages, tool sheds, and on farms, is a lot of Junk which is doing no good where it is, but which is needed at once to help smash the Japs and Nazis.

Scrap iron and steel, for example. Old radiators, lengths of pipe, refrigerators, garbage pails, broken garden tools...

It may be rusty, old "scrap" to you, but it is actually refined steel, with most impurities removed—and can be quickly melted with new metal in the form of pig iron to produce highest quality steel for our war machines.

Even in peacetime our Nation relied on scrap to provide about 50% of the raw material for steel. Now production of steel has gone up, up, UP, until today America is turning out as much steel as all the rest of the world combined.

But unless at least 6,000,000 additional tons of scrap steel is uncovered promptly, the full rate of production cannot be attained or increased; the necessary tanks, guns, and ships cannot be produced.

The rubber situation is also critical. In spite of the recent rubber drive, there is a continuing need for large quantities of scrap rubber. Also for other waste materials and metals like brass, copper, zinc, lead, and tin.

America needs your active assistance in rounding up these materials. The Junk which you collect is bought by industry from scrap dealers at established, government-controlled prices.

Will you help?
First—collect all your waste material and pile it up.

Then—sell it to a Junk dealer, give it to a charity, take it yourself to the nearest collection point, or get in touch with your Local Salvage Committee.

If you live on a farm, consult your County War Board or your farm implement dealer.

Throw YOUR scrap into the fight!

JUNK MAKES FIGHTING WEAPONS

One old radiator will provide scrap steel needed for seventeen .30 calibre rifles.

One old lawn mower will help make six 3-inch shells.

One useless old tire will provide as much rubber as is used in 12 gas masks.

One old shovel will help make 4 hand grenades.

MATERIALS NEEDED

Scrap iron and steel.
Other metals of all kinds.
Old rubber.
Rags, Manila rope, burlap bags.
Waste Cooking Fats—Strain into a large tin can and when you get a pound or more, sell to your meat dealer.
NEEDED ONLY IN CERTAIN LOCALITIES: Waste paper and tin cans, as announced locally.
NOT NEEDED at this time: Razor blades—glass.

Miss Beardsley Wed Sunday To Lt. J. A. Standen

Narberth Girl Was Bride At Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Chapel

A charming early fall wedding took place on Sunday afternoon in the Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Chapel, when Miss Barbara Beardsley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald P. Beardsley, 222 N. Narberth av., Narberth, became the bride of Lieutenant John A. Standen, Jr., U.S.A., son of Dr. and Mrs. John A. Standen, 310 Midland av., Wayne.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Rex Stowers Clement and was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white tulle, the skirt ending in a long train. Her short tiered veil was held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a cascade bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis.

The maid of honor, Miss Virginia Hobler, of Princeton, N. J., wore a frock of ash-of-roses tulle, and the bridesmaids wore similar models in gold tulle. They were Mrs. Charles Hall Vetterlein, Chestnut Hill; Miss Alice M. Haydock, Merion; Mrs. Walter Y. Howson, Wayne, and Mrs. Donald S. Martin, Detroit, Mich. All the attendants carried bouquets of Fall flowers with flower head-dresses to match.

Mrs. Beardsley, mother of the bride, wore a crepe gown of old-blue. Her black lace hat was trimmed with flowers to match her gown, and her corsage was of orchids.

Mrs. Standen, mother of the bridegroom, was gowned in a jacket dress of printed chiffon with which she wore a toque of blue feathers and a corsage of orchids.

Ensign Wesley J. Potas, Wayne, U. S. N., acted as best man, and the ushers were Messrs George Endicott, Paul Stetzer, Walter Y. Howson, William DeWitt, and Mitchell W. Beardsley, brother of the bride.

The bride is a graduate of Baldwin School and of Smith College, class of 1942. Lieutenant Standen was graduated from Radnor High School and attended Penn State. He enlisted early in 1941 and received his Lieutenant's commission in August of this year at the Quartermaster's School, Camp Lee, Va.

FIRESIDE

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Dunning Dripps, of Narberth, were the guests over the Labor Day week-end of Mr. and Mrs. F. Harold Tunnell, of Germantown, at their cottage at Bay Head, N. J.

James F. Zeigler, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Earl F. Zeigler, 3 Iona av., Narberth, has enlisted in the U. S. Navy for midshipman's training. He was sworn in on Tuesday as a V-7, which enables him to complete his senior year at Ursinus College, where he is president of the Alpha Phi Epsilon fraternity. He will receive his naval training at Notre Dame and Columbia University.

Edward J. Dooner, 521 Homewood av., Narberth, has completed the initial step in his training as a Naval aviation cadet at the Navy Pre-Flight School at Chapel Hill, N. C., and has been transferred to the Naval Reserve Aviation Base at Philadelphia for primary flight instruction.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Hall, 2 Sabine av., Narberth, returned yesterday from Ocean Grove, N. J., where they spent a week.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Suplec, 315 Woodside av., Narberth, left Tuesday for a two weeks vacation at their Summer place, 833 St. Charles Place, Ocean City, N. J.

Mrs. Ada Dale St. John, daughter of Mrs. John L. Dale, 209 Elm Terrace, Narberth was graduated from Rider College, Trenton, N. J., where she received the degree of Bachelor of Science in Education at the annual Commencement exercises in August.

James P. Gallagher, son of Mrs. James Gallagher, 108 Merion Ave., Narberth, has arrived in Northern Ireland. Shortly before his departure, he was promoted to Staff Sergeant.

The salvage committee of the Lower Merion Council of Defense is hoping to add an apparently abandoned steam roller to its collection of scrap in the coming Junk Rally to be held throughout the Township September 15-30 in cooperation with the Township Highway Department.

The steam roller, reported to have been standing at its present location for several years, is in bad condition and of such old design it is probably one of few of its kind left in the country, so that replacement of parts needed to put it into service again would be extremely difficult.

The committee has been tracing the owner and is trying to get him to contribute it to the national war effort in time to have it swell the Township quota during the Junk Rally, being held in cooperation with Pennsylvania's Scrap Harvest and the national campaign.

Local scrap committees have been requested by the State committee to report each day during the campaign the amounts of ferrous and non-ferrous metals, rubber and rags, collected during the drive.

Satisfactory arrangements have been made with the Highway Department to pick up heavy salvage that cannot ordinarily be handled by the individual householder, Chairman Ralph E. Springer of the salvage committee reported to the Council of Defense at its regular monthly full report meeting Tuesday night.

Arrangements may be made through the Council at the Township Building, Ardmore, for similar collections of objects too heavy to be handled in the regular routine manner.

With several very useful things being turned in by those anxious to help the national effort, the Committee is at the same time emphasizing a precaution from the Government in a recent salvage bulletin, "Do not discard anything that is still useful and that might have to be replaced," for replacement.

Mrs. Robert Price was elected to fill the vacancy on the board caused by the death of Mrs. John Davidson.

It was decided that Mrs. Crater should represent the club on the Narberth Defense Council, with Mrs. Henry A. Frye as co-representative.

NARBERTH CLUB BOARD NAMES MRS. PRICE

The executive board of the Women's Community Club of Narberth met on Tuesday morning at the home of the president, Mrs. L. G. Crater, Grayling Ave., Narberth.

Mrs. Robert Price was elected to fill the vacancy on the board caused by the death of Mrs. John Davidson.

It was decided that Mrs. Crater should represent the club on the Narberth Defense Council, with Mrs. Henry A. Frye as co-representative.

Clubwomen To Meet Sept. 25 In Lancaster

Southeastern District Conference Will Feature Wartime Topics

One of the most important meetings of the year for clubwomen is the district conference, which will take place in St. Paul's Evangelical Reformed Church, Lancaster, on September 25 with Mrs. James Shook, vice president of the Southeastern district, presiding.

Delaware, Chester and Lancaster County Clubs, acting as official hostesses, will be represented by their presidents: Mrs. Thomas Rodden, Miss Marion Evans (Chester Co.); Mrs. Stacey Peters (Lancaster Co.); and many club members, who will take an active part in the program.

Following registration at 9:45 a. m., the morning session will convene at 10:30 a. m. Delegates to the General Federation in May will be elected during brief business meetings.

The forenoon will be given over to addresses, followed by group conferences.

Theodore A. Desslet, president of Franklin and Marshall College, has chosen as his topic "Learning to Live with the World." "Women in War" will be theme of Mrs. Alfred A. Crooks' address.

The conference on "War Services" will be conducted by Mrs. J. O. Hopwood, War Service Chairman of Delaware County.

Other conferences include "War and Recreation," "War and Art" and "Conservation and Victory Gardens."

The afternoon session, sponsored by the Pennsylvania State College, will have as speaker Danara Overstreet (Mrs. Harry A.), whose topic will be "Community Leadership to Meet War and Post-War Needs."

General discussion will be led by college discussion leaders.

Luncheon reservations may be made with Mrs. Albert M. Herr, Rider and Elm avs., Lancaster, until closing date, September 23.

Main Line Women Aid Drive For Stage Door Canteen Funds

Mrs. Harry Antweiler, Lancaster av., Wynnewood, is heading a large delegation of Main Liners who are working on the Stage Door Canteen three-day drive to raise a maintenance fund of $25,000.

Other captains from the Main Line working with Mrs. Antweiler are: Mrs. Earl Hepburn, 449 N. Bowman av., Merion; Mrs. Charles Harlem, Jr., 142 Montgomery av., Cynwyd; Miss Winnie Lichty, Gypsy Lane, Wynnewood; Miss Polly M. Henry, 305 Berkeley rd., Merion; Miss Patricia Warren, 1406 Dorset Lane, Overbrook Hills; Miss Marian Seltz, Winchester rd., Merion; Miss June Donnelly, 20 Avon rd., Narberth; Miss Tinker Collins, 129 Chestnut av., Narberth; Miss Peggy Thompson, 410 McClenaghan, Mill rd., Wynnewood; Miss Shirley Bailey, 30 Narbrook Park, Narberth; Miss Barbara Floyd, 222 Almur Lane, Wynnewood; Miss Mary Huff, Lakeside rd., Wynnewood; Mrs. J. Edward Freeman, Broad Acres rd., Penn Valley; and Mrs. Lawrence Schubert Lawrence, 239 Winding Way, Merion.

The largest street vaudeville show ever staged in Philadelphia is being presented in front of the Academy of Music for the lunch hour crowds Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, with stars of the town's legitimate theatres, vaudeville houses, high clubs and radio stations presenting an hour of outdoor entertainment on each of the three days.

The girls taking up the collections will wear a special headdress created by Strawbridge and Clothier from an original design by Artist Emlen Etnnie. The campaign aides also will be stationed in banks, department stores, railroad stations, at defense plant, and at the main intersections in the mid-town district.

The Canteen is making an appeal for funds to maintain the show-place rendezvous for service men in the basement of the Academy of Music. Run in cabaret style, with floor shows and dancing, the Stage Door Canteen, a project of the American Theatre Wing, offers everything free to men in uniform.

The Canteen, which has been supported entirely by voluntary contributions, is open every evening including Sundays from 5 p. m. until midnight.

CARD PARTY TO AID TRIBUTE HOUSE FUND

A bridge party will be held at the Merion Tribute House on Wednesday, October 21, at 2 p. m. under the auspices of the Merion Community Association for the benefit of the Merion Tribute House Emergency Fund.

Mrs. S. Earle Haines, Heath rd., Merion, is chairman of the party. Reservations should be sent to her, care of the Tribute House, Hazelhurst av., Merion.

His mates pounded Turner hard to build up an 8-2 lead before Jack McMonigle came on the scene in the sixth. McMonigle gave up a run in the sixth, two in the eighth and one in the ninth.

"This letter was interrupted yesterday, as an acquaintance asked me to come to the cinema with her to see the Newsreels, as they were showing on the screen the departure of the French children that have been here for three months and the arrival of the new ones; those that left were healthy and clean and tidy and there were many tears shed as they said goodbye to their foster-parents. Oh! but those poor starved little things that arrived made me cry; they looked so utterly poor. I am glad that I went to see it. The International Red Cross is the most wonderful organization, what trouble they take even to the smallest detail. The children arrived at Geneva in charge of the Red Cross nurses. They were met by the Geneva Red Cross at the Station and were conducted to Red Cross Headquarters, where in a large hall they were served with food; those poor little things — it was heartbreaking to see them eat, they were just like famished little animals, trying to put food into their mouths as quickly as possible; some of them dispensed with their forks and grabbed every thing with their hands. I often wondered how it would work out, as I did not know that everything was thought out with such wonderful detail. Long before the children arrived Swiss people who wished to take those poor mites are asked to send their names and addresses, also their positions in life to the International Red Cross Headquarters in Geneva. People of all stations of life offer to take children. So children from upper classes are sent to the same kind of homes here, and children of the working are sent to farms, etc., because it is not only the poor that are starving, but children of the wealthy as well, as there is no food to be bought; there were some beautifully dressed children amongst them, but poor little things they were so thin. After they arrived in Geneva and have had a good meal, they are put to bed at the Red Cross Headquarters. The next morning the foster-parents arrive, each child has a large label attached to his coat on which is his name and the name and address of his foster-parents. They all receive their children with hugs and kisses so they feel at home right away. The upper class children are met by ladies and taken home in taxis, others are hoisted on farm carts and taken to their farms. There are babies from the age of 2 up to 12. It certainly was the most interesting film I have ever seen."
